Upon perusing this Viking, one cannot help perceiving its interesting pictures and unique features — the result of many laborious hours on the part of the Viking staff under the able supervision of Mr. F. H. Whitmer. May the reader find as much enjoyment in its contents as did those responsible for its editing.

ation

To Mr. Henry L. Simpson–whose amiable character, helpful guidance, and infallible good humor have added immeasurably to our stay at Northern, we of the Viking Staff take great pleasure in dedicating this semi-annual.

facultu

I sincerely hope that your three years at Northern High school are crowded with pleasant memories and that the tasks imposed upon you by our teachers have not been too burdensome.

Now you will be fully occupied with the disagreeable business of war. May a speedy victory for Democracy return you to the pursuits of peace.

Sincerely yours,

J. E. Tanis

President ..... FRED GREEN

Fred Green, President of the June class, has more than proved himself worthy of the high honor given him by his classmates. His friendliness, sportsmanship, and ability combine to make him a leader of whom to be proud.

Vice-President ..... JOAN HINKLE

Charm, personality, and an earnest participation in Northern's activities have served to make Joan tremendously popular. Representative of her popularity is her position as vice-president, the functions of which she has so ably performed.

Secretary ..... NINFA CATALANO

Our efficient secretary is well known for her participation in such diversified fields as athletics and music. Popular and well liked by all who know her, Ninfa has filled her position with characteristic ability.

Treasurer ..... SELWYN TOUBER

Selwyn's likeable personality and ever ready smile for all who know him have placed him in a prominent position in his class. His ability to fulfill the duties of his office has been amply demonstrated.

President's Message

That hour which we have looked forward to with such eagerness has finally come. We, the members of the class of June, 1943, are about to be graduated. For the past three years we have been fellow-students, divided by different opportunities and different ambitions, united by a bond of loyalty to our school. We have looked forward to this day since we first entered Northern, but, now that it has come, we find a certain sadness at leaving and an unwillingness to say goodbye.

During our years at Northern we have been welded together by common aims and common ideals. The students who have conscientiously given their best efforts to their studies have laid a foundation of both knowledge and character upon which they may safely build. The athletes who, in the face of defeat, have given their last ounce of energy for the Red and Blue have caught the spirit of loyalty, courage, and sacrifice which will do much to hold them steadfast in the battle of life.

Our instructors have wisely and patiently given us the benefits of their knowledge and experience. They have taught us a great deal not found in text books, lessons which we shall never forget. Perhaps the most cherished feature of our high school life is the warm glow of friendship which has brightened each day. These strong, happy friendships which we have formed at Northern will always be cherished.

We shall never forget this most profitable period of our lives, for it has been one of great happiness. In the future we will enjoy recalling our friends, our good times, and our successful efforts at Northern. Graduates, wherever you may happen to be or whatever you may do, God bless you!

Fred Green

Miss Giddings, counselor, and the students of the Mary Gamble House have contributed to Northern's war effort. In regard to victory we have knitted eight-inch squares for afghans to be sent to our boys in the service.

Similarly, we have not failed to support whole-heartedly all of the school's activities. Our members are prominent on every team and on the LIGHT and VIKING staffs. Our 12A leaders in sports are Ninfa Catalano and Barbara Ensing. Nancy Ensley aids in reporting Northern's news.

On departing, the June graduates leave their successors under the guidance of Miss Giddings and wish them the best of luck.

1917—The House was formed with Mr. Warren Frye as House Principal.

1920—Mr. John J. Powells replaced Mr. Frye, who left to teach at Eastern.

1923—Mr. Powells became Assistant Principal of the school.

1925—Ralph White won a $5,000 Union Trust Scholarship to an eastern college.

1927—The second hand bookstore was established in 208.

1930—The House adopted a new constitution.

1931—The House fencing team won the school championship.

1936—The Clemens Memorial Trophy was awarded to 208's swimming team.

1939—208 won the scholarship plaque.

1942—Many former members of the House serve with the armed forces on the battle-fronts of the world.

1943—Many students are enrolling in the pre-induction courses in preparation for war service.

Proudly displayed in study hall 227 is the scholarship shield, a symbol of recognition for outstanding work. For this we are grateful to our kind and sympathetic advisor, Miss Jean B. Knight.

But the Alice Freeman Palmer House is not only known for its high scholarship rating; its members are well represented in school activities. Our President, Joan Hinkle, is the Vice-President of the graduating class, Secretary of the Student Council, and a member of the VIKING staff. Also on the VIKING staff are Maber Ford and Lenore Graff. On the LIGHT staff are Florence Kingsbury, Co-Editor in Chief; Celia Gittleman, a feature editor; Rose Fine and Jean Hunt.

Nancy Hudson, Marianne Graetzer, and Florence Harvey were active in school sports. Doris Herriott, Corliss Hunter, Florence Kingsbury, and Ruth Grinnewald acted in the senior play; Marilyn Goetz, Lenore Graff, Jean Hunt, and Eleanor Isaacson aided in its production.

House 227 joins with Miss Knight in wishing the graduates success upon leaving Northern.

The members of the John Marshall House can boast of their already splendid record along with their additional pledges of augmented high standards of this term. The successful termination of the past five months under the guidance of Mr. Vozka has certainly emitted accomplishments of great worth.

House 224 has participated in almost every national and local activity in respect to supporting the school and aiding the war effort. The long honor roll of former John Marshallites in the service is demonstrative of this. The high record of our basketball team puts 224 in a high position in boys' sports. Philip Katz, Robert Hampton, and George Kalendrut are prominent members of Northern's Rifle Team.

Our president, Jack Litwin, is prominent in school activities; he is Managing Editor of the VIKING and president of the Student Council and of the High Standards Club

We extend our hearty congratulations to the graduates and wish them success in their chosen pursuits.

Following the leadership of Miss Sutherland, House 307 takes its place among the best at Northern. A serious attitude has been adopted to maintain the high standards set up by the girls of this House for a full quarter century. A high scholastic average and good citizenship toward school and country are watchwords of 307 girls.

Following the great work of Clara Barton's American Red Cross, the members of this House will perpetuate the high ideals for which this noted woman stood.

House 307 has in its possession the plaque awarded for attaining the highest scholastic rating last term.

On leaving Northern, the graduates give their thanks to Miss Sutherland and the entire faculty for the invaluable assistance and counsel given them throughout their stay here.

House 308 has succeeded in giving forth to the world many men proficient in their respective fields.

Boys of 308 have been winning awards and trophies for their graderoom since Northern was established in 1917.

The armed forces have claimed many Franklinites both in this war and the last. Former members of this House are now serving in remote corners of the world: Australia, New Guinea, the Solomon Islands, North Africa and India. Thus far, thirty-two of our boys are known to be on active duty. Others are working in factories, producing the weapons that will win the war.

The boys of 308 join in saluting their fellow Franklinites in arms and are doing everything possible to speed the victory that will come.

To the graduates we extend our sincere wishes for a successful future.

House 327 has completed another successful term under the able guidance of Miss Edith Keller.

Numbered among some of the House's projects were contributions to the Victory Book Campaign, the old clothes drive, scrap metal salvage, and the March of Dimes.

In the field of sports the Jane Addamsites won the girls' basketball and swimming trophies. The first of these victorious teams was made up of Catherine Michaelis, captain; Bonnie Long, Catherine Marsh, Ruth Linson, Marion Parker, and Erma Peterson.

Many of our girls took part in the senior play—Barbara Panzner, Florence Miller, Mariruth O'Bryan, Rubynell Oglesby, Mary Lindsay, and Ruth Robin. Velma May, Catherine Poterala, and Phyliss Litwak represented the house on the VIKING staff.

The graduates of this house thank Miss Keller for the splendid assistance and guidance she has given them throughout their stay at Northern.

Quill and Scroll

With Mr. Goldstein's hand on the quill, the Whitmer Chapter of the Quill and Scroll looks forward to equal or excel their past endeavors. The chapter, named after our English department head, has been active at Northern since 1939.

The roster is made up of writers for the Northern Light who have had fifty inches of outstanding copy printed, then accepted and approved by the National Association. Also, above average marks in other subjects constitutes one of the main qualifications. New candidates for this international honorary society are chosen by the faculty adviser of the Northern Light.

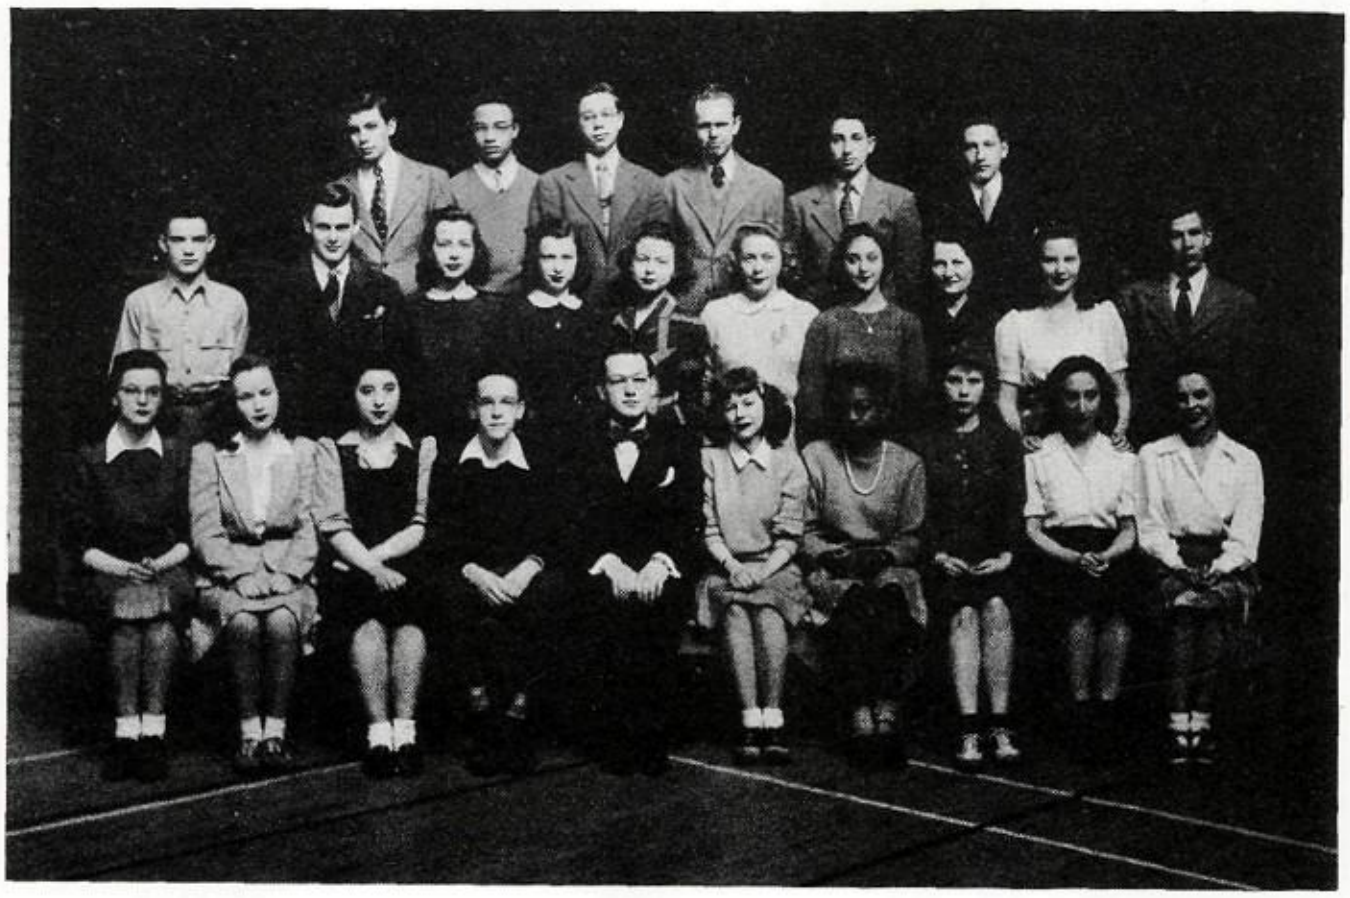
Library Staff

Because of its peaceful air of study, Northern's library is always well filled. It is the first place most students go for advice when difficult research assignments are given. Under the cheerful guidance of Miss Lyon, or one of her "up and at 'em" staff, students are aided in the use of all that the library contains.

The library boasts a collection of current magazines and a satisfying group of newspapers, which includes the New York Times. Also provided are the classics and many modern up-to-date books, as well as reference material.

Radio Unit



Since its inception in 1939 the Northern High School Radio Unit, directed by Mr. Harry Goldstein, has presented many performances of merit. Students who are taking, or have taken, the school's radio courses are eligible to participate in the activities of the group. Because the Radio Unit does not operate as a club, the members have never elected officers; however, students are appointed to positions comparable to those of commercial radio stations. John Ohliger is the production director this semester, Mary Dell Roberts and Pat Ludington are the executive secretaries, and Burghardt Taliaferro, the music director. Arthur Munch, sound director, and Loren Johnston, chief engineer, take care of the electrical equipment used in recording and broadcasting.

Adapting and recording well known stories and plays is the regular work of the group. Recently they produced a half-hour adaptation of Shakespeare's Macbeth. The group has presented plays written by staff-members of Station WWJ and of the Wayne University Broadcasting Guild. Members of the Radio Unit have also written and produced several school rally programs.

Directors for this year were Gerald Richards, Larry Terniack, John Ohliger, and Burghardt Taliaferro. The talent included Mary Lincoln, Betty Pat Smith, Mary Dell Roberts, Selwyn Touber, Pat Ludington, Marion Summers, Allen Smaltz, Bill Cornell, and Willis Ellis.

PROMPTERS

Going to Princeton is a "fate worse than death." Naturally, we're quoting from that mountainous monument of woes, Clifford Goldsmith's What a Life. It was chosen as this term's senior play because of its natural appeal for all who have ever been to school.

The play is full of adolescence, that time of mortal existence when even misery is funny—funny, that is, to the onlookers, not the participants. Henry Aldrich is the character about whom the play centers. He is rigorously guided by a well-meaning family until he gets a feeling of guilt about any achievement or act that's essentially his own.

There is a history exam. If Henry passes with the highest mark in his class, his mother has promised to pay for a ticket to the school dance, to which Henry is taking a very cute girl. In order to get the highest mark he cheats. He is accused of stealing the brass instruments from the school band. Finally, the assistant principal tells Henry to own up to his cheating, and tells his parents that Henry belongs in an art school. The real thief of the instruments is caught, and the play ends with Henry facing another crisis—that of scraping up thirty cents.

The play was well produced under Mr. Goldstein's excellent direction and the work of the large cast and production staff.

Led by co-captains Le Roy Stanley and Harold Trexler, the Northern R.O.T.C. Rifle Team took second place in their regiment. The regiment contains five of Detroit's ranking high schools. The team average was more than twenty points higher this semester than last.

Sergeant Rolnick from Camp Polk, Louisiana, and formerly at Cass Technical High School, was the instructor.

Added to last semester's team consisting of Le Roy Stanley, Robert Hampton, William Kremidas, and Herbert Shippen were Phillip Katz, James Antonow, William Compton, George Kalendrut, Tom Opipari, Robert Paul, and Jack Barnett.

Eskiettes

One of the many nice things about the Eskiettes is: once an Eskiette, always an Eskiette. Also, you meet girls bubbling over with pep, action, and friendliness.

To promote better sportsmanship, to take part in athletic activities, and to further good fellowship have been our greatest aims.

When a group such as ours has two such fine sponsors as Miss Delaney and Mrs. Scollay to lead us, life becomes more wonderful!

Splash parties, teas, initiations, Varsity games, outside meetings and going away parties have provided cherished memories of the happy times we've had together. Though different be our paths, in spirit we shall always be together.

Upon leaving we say to you, the Eskiettes-to-be: KEEP UP THE SCHOOL SPIRIT.

Delta Kappa

Without relaxing the standards which have been their aim through the last twelve years, the Delta girls have added to the purpose of "The pursuit of knowledge, the development of the intellect and the furtherance of sociability among girls," that of "Aiding the cause of Victory." Before and after school, and even during school hours, the girls have conducted the sale of defense stamps and bonds. From October through March they have the grand total of $4,474.20 to their credit.

Many enjoyable social meetings have been held outside of school, including a bowling party. At least a B average is necessary to maintain membership in this club.

Mrs. Stoneman sponsored the club this term, and to her we extend our undying gratitude for the assistance she has given us.

M. Henry, D. Adelson, R. Donofsky, N. Lifshitz, and E. Zager were accepted this term as new members in the club.

House of Representatives

Led by Ivan Ludington, its able and inspiring president, the Northern House of Representatives has risen to new heights.

On March 12 a most successful dance was given at the Hackett Field House. Many from Northern came out to share in the fun which everyone was having.

Basketball and baseball contests were held with Hi-Y and other teams. In this way and by means of house parties the five new members have become well acquainted with the other seventeen.

The "House" has endeavored to serve the school by selling bookcovers and ushering at the senior play.

Mr. Bigler has kindly consented to be the sponsor of the club and is extremely capable.

To Bill Pfaff and Lloyd Hanna the club wishes the best of luck in their years to come.

Trideal Euturpe

Regularly holding meetings at the homes of members, the Trideal-Euterpe Club has completed another successful term. While knitting squares for their Red Cross afghan, the girls were entertained by the sponsors who read aloud from popular books.

Trideal and Euterpe, formerly two separate clubs, were joined in 1939. The three ideals of the club are scholarship, friendship, and service. Proof of the regard the members have for these ideals is the showing they have made in school activities. Nancy Wolfs, Doris Herriott, and Barbara Snyder held major parts in the 12A play this term. Jean Hunt was on the Light staff, while Barbara Snyder and Marjorie Bean were active on the Viking.

The girls would like to extend their gratitude to the sponsors, Miss Elliott, Miss Teninga, and Miss Clawson for their welcome guidance and friendship.

Latin Club

The Northern Chapter of the nation-wide organization, the Junior Classical League, organized and sponsored by Miss Zinck and Miss Dean, has successfully completed its first semester.

The basic requisite for membership in this club is a genuine interest in the classics. A gold plated J. C. L. pin entitling him to membership in the Junior Classical League is worn by every member of the Latin Club.

Activities this term was a visit to McKenzie High, where Dearborn High School students presented two plays based on the Aeneid. An interesting kodachrome movie travelogue on the topic "The Aegean Sea and its Environs" was given.

Launched successfully this semester, the Latin Club looks forward to many more successful semesters.

El Circulo Espanol

The Spanish Club is enjoying ever-increasing popularity because of our growing friendship. The club is wholeheartedly in agreement with the new idea of the country-wide Pan American Clubs now being organized.

Miss Russell, the very able sponsor, does everything possible to increase the ability of the members to speak the beautiful language.

At every meeting of the "El Circulo Espanol" discussions of the customs, traditions, and beauty of South America, Mexico, and Spain are given. Programs are planned, and Spanish songs and games are always included.

Le Cercle Francais

The French Club, under the sponsorship of Miss G. K. Lutz and Miss L. E. Ward, who are sponsoring it this year, began to interest French students in November, 1930.

Their motto is "Practice makes perfect," which they try to live up to by not speaking English in the meetings.

The programs of games, plays, lectures, and songs are enjoyed by all. The sponsors' suggestions are appreciated and accepted.

As in the years before, we continue to wish the seniors "Bonne Chance."

Philodendroi

The Philodendroi Biology Club has been built upon a keen interest in biology and high scholastic standards.

Meetings are held once each week.

Activities are of a varied nature, consisting of field trips, quizs, lectures, movies, arranging biological display cases, and some special term project. This year, following the trend of the times, we are planning the development of a Victory Garden.

The Philodendroi has been carried on under the able leadership of Mrs. Cone, sponsor.

Physics Club

With the exception of one semester, the Physics Club, sponsored by Mr. Rolfe, has been active for about twenty-one years.

The main purposes of the Physics Club are to stimulate interest in physics, and show how physics is applied to industry.

This semester, the club visited the Cranbrook Institute in Bloomfield Hills and had their annual picnic there.

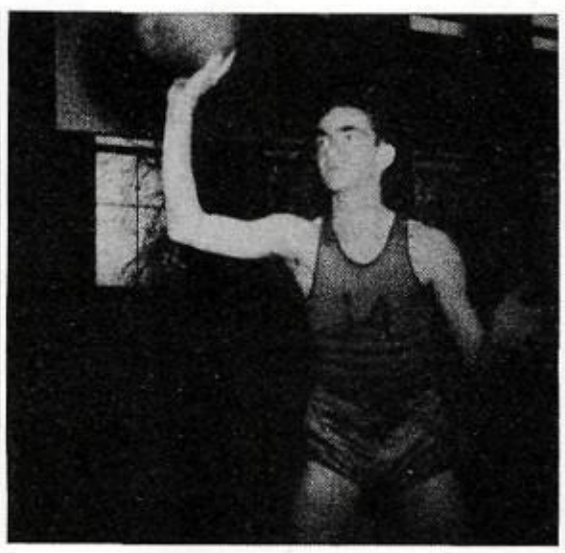
Basketball

Because of the physical fitness training of this year, Varsity Basketball gave way to intramural competition. There was a tenth, an eleventh, and a twelfth grade team. (The freshmen did not do quite so well as upperclassmen). Led by Co-captains Chuck Frankel and Stuart Chipman, the eleventh grade team won all their games and ended by capturing the divisional championship. This team will be returning intact for competition next term.

The seniors, with Jim Smoot and Jack Reagan as guards, Co-captain Dan Potter, center, and Co-captain Bill Jacobson and Edward McKnight as forwards, also led in all of their games and completed a successful season by capturing the twelfth grade divisional championship.

Most of these players will enter the armed forces immediately upon graduation. If they show as much determination and teamwork for their country as they have shown for Northern we will understand the quick triumph of our forces all over the world. Boys, Northern is proud of you and may God watch and look over all of you as you become a member of a much larger team with a greater and more important goal—Freedom.



Track

SOME NORTHERN TRACK STARS OF THE PAST

George ("Buck") Hester '22
All-City dash man; later a leading college sprinter while at the U. of M., and a member of the Canadian Olympic team.

Everett Pauschert '24
Broke State quarter-mile record at Lansing.

Gordon Hester
"Buck's" younger brother; leading Detroit sprinter.

Jimmy Russell '26
Dash man; later starred at Wayne.

R. Lamb '28
Starred in the dashes at U. of M.

Bill Bonthron '28
Became one of the world's leading milers.

Ed Soloman '39
Outstanding in the hurdles and dashes.

Sam Sachs '30
Leading 220 competitor.

Leonard Alkon
Holds present 100 and 220 dash records for City; now starring at the U. of M.

"Two-Man Team"

The indoor track season was abandoned for the physical fitness training. After much deliberation on the part of school authorities outdoor track is to be returned. Northern's chances this spring seem good with the presence of two All-City men, Co-Captains Ernest Boyd and Julian Witherspoon; and one varsity man, Sidney Stevens.

This will be Boyd's and Witherspoon's final year, and both will be giving their best.

Boyd has jumped 6 feet 3 inches repeatedly, and if it were not for the Army he would most certainly have a grand college career ahead of him. He is a good worker and a grand sport.

Witherspoon has distinguished himself at Northern by his outstanding ability as a sprinter. He has been a member of Northern's team for all three years—earning an All-City stripe for each year and another after his final one. He is leader of the City's 30 and 100 yard dash men.

Girls' Swimming

Northern's Mermaids had no active competition this semester because Hamtramck, Highland Park, and Cass have no girls' swimming teams. This is unfortunate because Northern has an excellent team, consisting of:

Girls' Basketball

Northern's basketball girls, ably coached by Miss Delaney, had a good season, although there was less chance for inter-school competition. The most enjoyable game of the season was "Cuties vs. Farmerettes," the final score being 30-32, the Cuties chalking up the winning point.

The other schools played were Hamtramck and Pershing. Chosen to lead the team was Ruth Hackett, with Maureen Fallis elected manager. The other Varsity players were Ruth Linson, Bonnie Long, Catherine Michaelis, Leah Stanley, Betty Everett, Marion Parker, Catherine Marsh, Ninfa Catalano, and Betty Scholar.

The Reserve Team won two games and tied one. Although many excellent players are graduating this term, the team shows great promise for next year.

Girls' Tennis

Although hampered by the loss of Virginia Colton and Hazel Mundie, last year's star players, this year's tennis team worked twice as hard, under Miss Delaney's coaching, to keep up its good record.

The six seasoned players returning this year were Ninfa Catalano, unanimously elected captain, Dortha Lee Cook, Ruth Grinnewald, Betty Lou Schneider, Catherine Michaelis, and Nancy Hudson, well supported by several excellent new players.

The other schools in Northern's league were Pershing, Hamtramck, and Highland Park.

and Tennis

This year's varsity team will be headed by Co-Captains Hughes Potiker and Lloyd Hanna who are the team's returning lettermen. After barely missing out in the city finals in their successful '42 season of eight victories and two losses, the Northern Tennis Team hope to better their records this year. In spite of war time and its effect upon athletic activities tennis was brought back this year on a modified scale. This year finds Northern's team with a new coach, Mr. Muschella, who takes the place of Mr. Lewis, now a Lieutenant (Junior grade) in the Navy.

GOOD POSITIONS IN THE WAR PROGRAM

There is a critical shortage of stenographers, typists, accountants, and office machine operators for desirable positions in Federal Government departments, war industries, and business. Young men with this training are needed by our armed forces.

You can help "work for Victory" in these positions, and increase your chances for worthwhile employment in the post-war era.

You can prepare at The Business Institute for one of these opportunities.

Mr. Hanna received a letter from his son Lloyd in college:

"I need fifty dollars for club dues. Your son, Lloyd.

"P. S. Since writing this letter I am ashamed to ask you, so I ran after the postman and tried to get it back. I pray it does not reach you."

Lloyd received a letter from his father:

"Dear Lloyd, your prayer was answered, the letter didn't reach me."

Oscar Bederin: "That conductor glared at me as if I didn't pay my fare."

Alex Karay: "What did you do?"

Oscar Bederin: "I glared right back as if I did."

Mike Attan: "Is the boss in?"

Allen Champlin: "Are you a salesman, a bill collector or a friend of the boss?"

Mike Attan: "I'm all three."

Allen Champlin: "The boss is in conference, he is out of town, and please step in."

Recently three individuals passed away. Arriving at the gates, Peter asked each the same question to determine which way they were going. Calling the first one he asked, "What school did you go to?" "Cass" was the reply. Immediately he gave him a one-way ticket down. Asking the second person he replied, "Cooley." Likewise he followed the Cass student. The third person, Milton Solomon, said he was a Northern pew-pill. Peter then said, "Here's your ticket, you go straight up, you've been through hell already."
